

NORTH WEST LABOUR HISTORY

No. 32, 2007-8 ISSN 1362-6302 www.workershistory.org

Journal of the North West Labour History Group

Contents

From the editor ... Bob Hayes	2
The Passing Scene ...	4
North West Labour History Group News	5
Who makes the Nazis? North west experiences of the New Party, 1931-32 Matthew Worley	7
Manchester, Liverpool and slavery Marika Sherwood	16
Public history and the past: slavery memorials in Lancaster Hilda Kean	23
Whose heritage? Adrian Mellor	26
Letters	31
Cross-party support to save historic youth hostel Bob Abel	32
Tameside oral history project Alice Lock	36
The plastic bizzies John Lafferty	37
Liverpool Love Lane Refinery Lives Ron Noon	40
Ethel Carnie Holdsworth: her place in the Lancashire protest tradition and her distinctive propaganda style Roger Smalley	51
A curious commemoration Bob Hayes	54
Working-class women, Liverpool: Education, 1910-1930 – an oral history John Davies	56
Michael Davitt, labour and the Irish question John Dunleavy	60
The story of a Socialist Sunday School banner Gina Bridgeland	64
Reviews	68

Front cover:

A cartoon ridiculing government policies and promoting the New Party and Allen Young - its Ashton-under-Lyne by-election candidate. Published in the party's New Ashton, April 1931. (© Digital image taken by Bob Hayes and reproduced courtesy of Tameside Metropolitan Borough Council Local Studies and Archives.)

Graphic design and typesetting by Andi Chapple Design, Sedbergh – www.design.freakout.biz